Alex Wilson, preacher at Portland Church of Christ in Louisville, KY since 1984, teacher, former missionary, editor and writer of Word and Work since 1984, (which publication has been published 100 years!.) continues serving in many of these roles.

Alex plans to bring the "State of the Fellowship" with hope, love and encouragement to our hearts in what can be discouraging times.

Born to Carl Vogt and Alexina Wilson, Alex (along with his sister, Frances) was raised in Louisville, KY. Portland Christian School was Alex' alma mater and was blessed to attend and graduate from Wheaton College. He and Ruth Wood married in 1961 and before long they accepted the missionary challenges in Manila, Philippines for 20 yrs. He returned to his home in Louisville with his family in 1984. This missionary-minded-family of three children and now seven grand children, are joined in this God-given union and together they all

"press toward the goal unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Likewise, let us join to encourage one another Tuesday Morning, September 9, 2008 at Woodland Bible Camp.

Ruth Wilson of Louisville, KY plans to be our daily prayer leader for the ladies "Prayer and Share" sessions. Ruth was born in Ranger, TX, one of four children of Jesse Z and Gertrude C. Wood. Her education was received from Southeastern Christian College ('58) and Morehead State Univ. ('60) Courses were taken at Azusa Pacific Univ. (CA) and Faith Academy in the Philippines.

Ruth and Alex Vogt Wilson were married in 1961. Their family of Stephen, Joy and Dan served as missionaries in Philippines from 1963-1983. Along with raising her family, Ruth has taught school, lead the Girl Scouts, taught classes in Bible Club, VBS, SS, School of Biblical Studies, teacher training, directed Women's Retreats (17 yrs.), assisted her husband in the ministry at Portland Church of Christ for over 24 yrs. Many of these services to her Lord continue as she also relishes time spent with their children and seven grand children living in Louisville, KY, Ensenada, Baja, Mexico and Colorado Springs, CO.

God works in mysterious ways His wonders to perform. Come join us ladies in prayer as we "Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving." Col. 4:2
