WOODLAND WANDERINGS WRAP-UP - 2007

It seems fitting that there should be a “wrap up” of the Woodland Wandering. So here goes.

Early colorful sunrises greeted seventeen folks who were primed and ready for “Senior Stretches” before breakfast. Janell Lewis led this activity. Cherry Street Church of Christ folks kept busy in the kitchen preparing delicious breakfasts to continue nourishing our physical bodies.

The eight “Power Hour” sessions were indeed blessings as was expected! Tears were not uncommon as the men were led and challenged to serve our Lord by David Ingalls, Plato, MO, Cliff Istre, Covington, LA, John Davis, Worthington, IN and Alex Wilson, Louisville, KY. About forty ladies were uplifted and hearts stirred to be more servants for our Savior by Wanda Janes, Louisville, KY, Joann Broaddus, Louisville, KY, Joyce Broyles, Jennings, LA and Joy Garrett, Zimbabwe, Africa. Joy directed the ladies in prophecy scriptures and teachings.

Campers from eight states and one foreign country were represented. About 125 registered and others swelled the crowd for evening services plus those cooking and serving the meals. Six RV campers enjoyed the added hook-ups. Twenty individuals lodged at Park Inn and several stayed in church folks’ homes in the surrounding area. Freshly remodeled cabins were comfortable for many campers taking advantage of them.

There were fifty campers from KBC/ SCC. Ruth Wood Wilson shared slides from her dad, Jesse Wood, former promotional director at SCC. A very special time of sharing was when Dr. Dale Jorgenson (Kirksville, MO) directed the group in singing from the “Great Songs of the Church” hymnal. Emory Grimes, song director, (Sellersburg, IN) led our hearts in singing throughout the week.

The four morning chapel Bible studies reminded us of our four Major Prophets and alerted us of how their prophecies are current today. These studies were led by Doug Broyles, Jennings, LA, Robert Garrett, Zimbabwe, Africa and David McReynolds, DeRidder, LA. . . . Robert and Cecil Garrett (Winchester, KY) gave slide presentations in the afternoons of their work in recent months.

Croquet, ping pong, swap-a-book table, special gifts from our Broyles (Jennings) folks, books authored by David Tapp, Sonny Childs, Jackie Gill, parlor games, puzzles, etc. were enjoyed during the afternoon. “Hillbilly Golf” especially made and presented to WBC by Jim and Jenny Rowe was “the athletic challenge of the week!!”

Meals during the week were elegantly prepared and presented by folks from sister churches in Indiana: Cherry Street Church, Summerville

Church, Shiloh Church, Linton Church and Pleasant Grove. We extend appreciation to all!!

Evening song fellowship and messages from Sonny Childs warmed the hearts of us older folks, our theme, “Grace for the Age”, blessed us. Still raring to go at 8:45 p.m., the group gathered for fun and games. Our loyal leaders, Clara and Ed Woosley (Bruceville, IN) and Jackie Gill (Russellville, KY) and cast, made for much laughter. (We are still searching for REAL stars, for Jackie’s cast! J)

Larry Miles (Louisville, KY) donated his capable services by printing the campers’ schedule, addresses, making DVDs, recordings, photography, etc. The eleven issues of Woodland Wanderings were most informative during the year. Thanks, Larry!! Let us be in prayer for another good Senior Citizen’s Week at Woodland Bible Camp September 8-12, 2008, should the Lord tarry His coming.

Co-Directors : J.R. and Pie Satterfield, Dick and Janell Lewis
