Biography of Emory Grimes

Emory Grimes of Sellersburg, IN will be “Director of Music” For Senior Citizen’s Week this year. Born in Louisville, KY and raised in Ormsby Church of Christ, he grew up loving to sing, learning the art and knowledge of singing via shaped notes. He attended Dupont Manual High School and University of Louisville, earning his Mechanical Engineering Degree. After serving in the U.S. Army, he was employed at General Electric ten years and later Corhart Refractories thirty years. Sellersburg and Hamburg Churches of Christ have been his church home along with his family. Two sons, Nathan and Steve, were born to his union of 34 years with Faith Cook Grimes. After Faith’s death, Emory and Marcella Smith wed and have now been married eleven years. Marcella has two living children, Jim and Tim Smith. Traveling is an enjoyable hobby of Emory and Marcella’s.

Serving on the board of Words of Life Ministries for forty years and Portland Christian School Board for thirty years along with eldership and teaching at church have been passions in his ministry of service to his Lord. Come let us praise God together in song at Woodland.
